CHARTER THE BELGIAN PRIDE 2022

My participation in the Belgian Pride 2022 implies that I (myself - my organization - my party) support the following points:

With regard to the LGBTI+ community, the signatory commits to:

- actively fight for equal rights and equal treatment of LGBTI+ people in Belgium and all over the world.
- actively fight against all forms of discrimination on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, sexual characteristics or gender expression.
- actively fight against homo-, lesbo-, bi-, trans-, intersex- and serophobia.
- collaborate in the communication and support of the theme of Belgian Pride 2022: "Open". The text of the theme can be found on our website www.pride.be/en/open.
- to adhere to the charters of the previous editions of the Belgian Pride (from 2016 to date) and to respect them.

In general, the signatory refers to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights* and clearly rejects any form of discrimination on the grounds described in the Belgian law on discrimination, namely:

- nationality, race, skin color, origin, ethnic origin or nationality, age, gender, disability, religion or belief, marital status, birth, means, political affiliation, present or future state of health, physical or genetic properties, social origin, gender identity, gender expression, sex, language or trade union beliefs.
